

Please to draw & print the letter to Fardner - read it over, if you like to & there is a line for Lizzie Stuart,

Dear Anna Keefe

A.S.

London, May 20, 1887

My dear Watson,

As I am writing to Fardner (who has kindly sent me 2 letters), I will thank you for your last kind letter, received yesterday.

If the 2 copies of Elements were got to Kern, they must have gone to Dyer, who was away on vacation, and he must have neglected sending them on to Hartman. I have not seen D. for months - may or may not next week.

I must drop a line to the negligent Bureau about your sendings.

Do you hear any thing of Baird's health, or sickness?

Somehow I take for granted that Mrs. ~~Allen~~ my niece you are kept informed of our movements, & as Mrs. Brown's which you do not know or want of, will be boxed up or put on Mary's do not dread worms

My Man is any thing I ought to look to in or near London, now is the time to let me know - that I may attend to it when thereabouts from 16 to 22 Sept.

Kindly remember this to your Sister & to Grubbe if you see him. He has been very kind, as he always is, for fellow. in letters, etc. to your Sister

formed - letters get round to her. But now Alice is away I suppose. We are just back from a charming trip thru. Wexford, with Mr Harker's, whom we left there. Now, from there as a center we are ~~paying~~ little visits to friends.
But in 8 or 9 days, must be in Manchester to the Port. Ass. Meeting. - from thence two short - country visits - then back to London - a few days with Oliver at Ken, and with Harker at The Camps.
& then for home, gladly.

I suppose all the Mamm "debris" & other from these loose - lying Islands,
